

Heidi's Hill Country Class Fall 2021

Just a Reminder

Class Orientation will be Sunday at 3:00 PM.

Fasten your seat belt! We're off to the Hill Country!

Please bring your brown envelope with the instructions, preparation, designs, and photos. Also, please bring your normal painting supplies AND your background colors.

The decorating colors will be available on Monday morning – thanks to Chroma Acrylics!

Class Prep:

I will have a little bit of the prep colors available for new students.

Angel Cross – Raindrop and Cornflower

Christmas Village – Harbour Blue and Deep Plum

TO BRING from Home:

1. Your choice of brushes
2. Water Container
3. Roll of Paper Towels, Sanding Block, or Sand Paper.
4. Tracing paper, grey and white graphite paper, stylus and white chalk pencil.
5. Sta-wet palettes (for more than one piece).
6. Pillow, sweater for cool mornings, towel or table covering for “your nest”, comfortable clothes and a smock.
7. Be sure to bring the supplies listed in your project instructions for the week you are attending, and your background colors.
8. If you are painting a project other than the one listed, please bring that palette as well.

Get ready for a super painting vacation week!

Remember, this is a “Vacation-Painting Seminar”. The pace is more relaxed and we do enjoy Retail Therapy! It is part of the class!

Wood will be here Saturday.

You may come in Saturday and Sunday for prep.

We will have so much fun!! Put on a big smile and I'll see you soon!
